RULES OF ENTRY

- The closing date for entries is 11th June 2010.
- All UK and EU based suppliers to the UK garden market, manufacturers, producers or importers are eligible to enter for Awards, whether GIMA members or not.
- Companies may submit entries for as many awards categories as they wish, and several entries per category are acceptable. Entries for the 2010 Awards must relate to marketing activities or products launched during the current season, from June 2009 to May 2010 inclusive.
- Each entry must be submitted with a separate GIMA Awards Entry Form (photocopies are acceptable) clearly stating the category number. Supporting statements are welcome on separate pages if thought to be helpful to the judges.
- Suggested retail prices MUST be indicated.
- All entry products and materials remain the property of GIMA unless their return is specifically requested. GIMA may use them for publicity purposes or for donation to charity.
- Products for return should be clearly marked with a red sticker for identification purposes and should be noted on the entry form. You are responsible for arranging collection of these items.
- The GIMA trophies and the Gardenex trophy become the property of the winners. The GIMA Awards of Excellence and the GCA trophy are to be returned after one year. All winners of Awards retain a GIMA trophy and a GIMA Award certificate as a permanent record of their achievement.
- If entry fee payment has not been received by closing date, entries cannot be judged.
